

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWSLETTER

In the last three years, the YPCC has been growing in Leaps and Bounds both in membership and in it's activities!

~Second Annual Business Leadership Competition~

Was held on December 1, 2004 and hosted 180 students from 11 high schools on Long Island! Students had the opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge through presentations in ten different categories. Next year promises to be bigger and better!

~Volunteers Needed~

Once again, the YPCC will be selling ice cream at the

5th Annual Tulip Festival

Sunday, May 1st • 11 AM - 4 PM

Heckscher Park, Huntington Village

Proceeds to benefit YPCC

Please sign up for one hour, two hours or whatever amount of time you can give!

~American Cancer Society's "Relay for Life"~

Be a part of the overnight event everyone is talking about June 4-5. YPCC is forming a team to walk around the track relay style throughout the night to fight cancer. Team members will take turns walking the track at Walt Whitman High School. The YPCC team can include yourself, friends, parents, brothers and sisters grandparents, etc.
